Greetings From the Ozarks

Since my last writing many things have occurred some of them very pleasing, some very sorrowful; this will always be so while we remain here. This dispersion has been mixed with the sweets.

I note with much sadness the announcement of the death of my old friend and yoke fellow, Rev. W. H. Bess. He was a noble man, true brother in Christ, profound Christian and able布道者 of the gospel who laid the foundation of many of our churches in southeast Missouri. I feel that a great man has fallen and that his loss—sacrifice every good cause will be seriously missed.

To the good wife and worthy family I tender my sympathy—I mingle my tears with yours and pray that God's great spirit may comfort you in your bereavement. I know you will ever be proud of his fruitful life and strive to效法 his example.

I am just back home from a trip to Monett and Bolivar. I saw much about southwest Missouri on my road, and the interests of southwest Missouri are healthy and promising.

Monett is a fine city of 8000 people, a great railroad center with business-building elements and also railroad shops and many other business buildings which will soon be interests of importance. The prospects for the churches and splendid schools. I school recently met the ministers of the southwest in a fifth Sunday gathering which I attended at Monett. There are more industrial than there are in West Missouri college buildings but not a better class. I find one period with them it made me think of the old days back in W. M. C.

The efficiency school field there for two weeks beginning March 2nd was a great success. There were 30 counties of Missouri represented besides seven other states. I was very much pleased with the work. The ministerial class was much benefited by the work done in these sections.

On returning from Bolivar we come by way of Crane thru Stone county and across Wilson's creek. It is a most beautiful stream coursing its way under a cover of trees very beautiful, but one cannot forget the awful struggle between the federal soldiers led by General Lyons and the confederates under General Price in the terrible days of the 60's. We rejoice that these scenes of death and destruction are gone forever.

With many good wishes for all friends and readers of the Marble Hill Press, and a kind remembrance of the Press family, I close.

May God bless you all,
W. A. DAVALD,
Mr. Vernon, Mo.

Whereas, a warranty has been made in the execution of said note and the interest therein.

Now, therefore, at the request of the note holder, and moreover by virtue of the authority and power conferred upon me and my co-trustee of trust, I will,

FRIDAY, APRIL 16th, 1920,

RESOLUTIONS

Marion Hill, Mo., March 17, 1920.

The following are resolutions adopted by the Bolinger County School Board convention March 17, 1920.

Whereas experience has taught that the available funds of the county are inadequate to maintain our schools on an efficient basis and pay the teachers a living wage, and from the results of which most of our progressive teachers are leaving the profession or going elsewhere for better salaries, and whereas, it is impossible for our teachers to qualify themselves from the salaries paid, and it is known that a majority of our districts do not levy in excess of 65cts. for school purposes, therefore it is the will of this convention that the existing deplorable conditions be brought to the attention of the taxpayers of the county, and that the various school boards order the maximum levy of 65cts. for school purposes, placed on the annual meeting notices of every district of the county in order that the voters may have an opportunity to cast their ballots for said levy, thereby making it possible for better educational facilities for the children of our county.

Whereas, we realize the inefficiency of our present state constitution regulating tax levies for school purposes, and are therefore in favor of the adoption of a new constitution for the state of Missouri.

We have come to believe that our present school system is not meeting the present day needs, and as a remedy we favor a larger school unit, better known as the county school unit.

We, the school board members of Bolinger county, Missouri, do hereby petition the Honorable state board of equalization to make such an increase in the valuation of property of the state on a more efficient basis, and provide for the children of Missouri opportunities equal to those offered by other progressive states.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. YOUNG,
JAS. P. LIMBARD,
A. MITCHELL,
N. E. MURPHY,
JAMES W. NELSON,
Committee.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

Until further notice we will pay the express on all cans of cream containing as much as ten pounds of butterfat; on all cans containing less than ten pounds of fat we will allow two cents per pound on the expressage.

Our policy has been, and always will be, to pay the top market price, give accurate weight and test and mail check and return can promptly.

If you will watch the butter market in the Daily Globe-Democrat you will be able to tell what we pay for butterfat every day of the year. We pay the price quoted on "extras" (Butter) the day cream is received.

Onion cream ten cents less.

Take good care of your cream, stir it a little every day, do not mix warm cream with cold, adjust your cream screw to make your cream test between thirty-five and fifty and you will realize more money out of it.

Six dollars will buy a Babcock testing outfit. Get one, it is worth the money. Know what your cream contains and strange flowers in their tests before you ship it—it's business.
